How much would it cost you to buy all 2,987 comics, graphic novels, t-shirts, toys and other collectibles in this issue of PREVIEWS?!

IN THIS ISSUE:

FROM THE ARCHIVES

Newspaper comic strips helped to create the comic book as we know it today, with the earliest collections of popular daily strips of the era serving as a springboard for the stories of adventure, mystery, and super-heroics that followed. Comic strips and classic comic books are being collected more and more each year; from fan-favorites to the obscure and little-known. Saving readers and collectors hundreds, if not thousands, of dollars they might spend pursuing the originals, these collected editions ensure that the material reproduced in their pages will never be lost. This month's issue of PREVIEWS is filled with dozens of comic strip and comic book, collections, both new and backlist. Just look throughout this issue for our "From the Archives" icon for more great collections! And for some great collected editions, be sure to check out our spread of some of our recent favorites, located on pages 224-225!

INDIE EDGE: TED ADAMS

This month, PREVIEWS turns its Indie Edge spotlight to one of comics' most storied and influential creative forces, Ted Adams! Having worked in the Comics industry for 30 years, Adams got his start at Eclipse Comics in the '80s, with stints at Dark Horse Comics, Wildstorm, and McFarlane Productions, before launching IDW Publishing in 1999. Now, Adams and his friends are launching their latest endeavor, Clover Press (see page 280!), this month! Ted discusses his past, his present, and some of the titles that he's currently enjoying in our first Indie Edge of the month! See page 12!

INDIE EDGE: SIMON "SI" SPURRIER

In our second(!) Indie Edge of the month, writer Simon Spurrier took time out of his busy schedule to talk about his career, favorite series, and his latest series for BOOM! Studios, Alienated, the story of outcast teens who discover a newly born alien creature, and use their bond with the infant alien to make some questionable choices. Simon also discusses some of his favorite reads, and talk about his upcoming projects. Find it all after the BOOM! Studios section on page 218 of this issue!

SEASONS GREETINGS!

2019 will soon be a matter of history — and I'll add twelve more issues of PREVIEWS to my personal library. And, I ran out of available shelf space over a year ago! PREVIEWS is a big book, and when aggregated with other copies, it isn't long before they start taking up space! But I'll move some stuff around and soon I'll be back to displaying my full PREVIEWS library!

Speaking of "big books", our theme this month is FROM THE ARCHIVES, and next to our other annual ode to big books, TITANIC TOMES, its one of my favorite monthly themes. There are very few old comics that I am compelled to collect in their original, olde-timey forms but I will on occasion spring for the odd reading copies of Dell/Gold Key movie/TV comics and pre-hero Atlas/Marvels. Mostly, I'm content and delighted to collect my favorite comics and comic strips in collected editions, and that's what FROM THE ARCHIVES is all about!

Owning the originals is great, but sometimes you don't want to be handling your vintage gems just to give them a read, which makes having collections of our favorites a winning proposition. Our Comics team has worked with publishers from across the industry to bring you the biggest and best collections this month. Classic comics, comic strips and art books... a collector's dream in softcover and hardcover!

Next month, in PREVIEWS #376 (our first issue of the New Year), we will reveal all of the brand-new titles to be offered on FREE COMIC BOOK DAY 2020 on Saturday, May 2nd! We'll showcase 50 new comics that will be made available, FREE of charge, just for visiting a participating retailer. And of course, we'll also be unveiling our annual FCBD Commemorative T-Shirt, illustrated by another fan-favorite artist (to be revealed)!

Finally, on behalf of the entire Diamond family and the PREVIEWS family, I'd like to wish you all the happiest of Holiday seasons! I'm pretty much the luckiest guy, getting to do what I do every month! We're delighted to bring you PREVIEWS each and every month, and it is my sincere hope that we'll see you all back here next month for our first issue of 2020 and our big FCBD reveal!

Your Pal @ PREVIEWS,

Marty

It's all work and lots of fun at the fictional Berke's Comic Shop in our new strip, Comic Shop Tales! Come back each month for a new tale, and go online at PREVIEWSworld.com for more strips during the month!

Star Wars Production Items, Props See Six-Figures in Prop Store Auction

The fall Prop Store Entertainment Memorabilia Auction was loaded with screen-used props, costumes, and production material, including several from Star Wars. The franchise saw many big sellers, led by the Ralph McQuarrie hand-painted Darth Vader and Death Star illustration art for $213,675.

A Stormtrooper helmet from A New Hope rose to $198,412, a Luke Skywalker production-made lightsaber from A New Hope hit $183,150, and Mace Windu's lightsaber from Revenge of the Jedi achieved $106,837. A light-up remote control droid from Rogue One and one from Solo each went for $167,887.

Frazetta Painting Soars to $495K in Heritage Auction

An oil painting by iconic American science fiction and fantasy artist Frank Frazetta cleared $495,000 in a Heritage Illustration Art Auction. It was the first time that Frazetta's Child of the Sun paperback cover was ever offered at auction.

The piece is an amazing peak-period masterpiece that had been purchased by the previous owner in the early 1970s. The dramatic, multi-figure composition includes four scantily clad figures, as well as intricate background elements, making the image one that can be appreciated as fine art and for its illustration context.

Moon Knight: Hooded Crusader of Vengeance

Moon Knight/Marc Spector is an expert detective, proficient in martial arts and armed combat with increased strength, endurance, and agility. Introduced in Werewolf by Night

#32 in 1975, Moon Knight was created by Doug Moench and Don Perlin. He started as a heavyweight boxer before joining the US Marines and later the CIA. After leaving the intelligence agency, Spector becomes a strong, skilled mercenary, renowned for his willingness to do anything if the price is right.

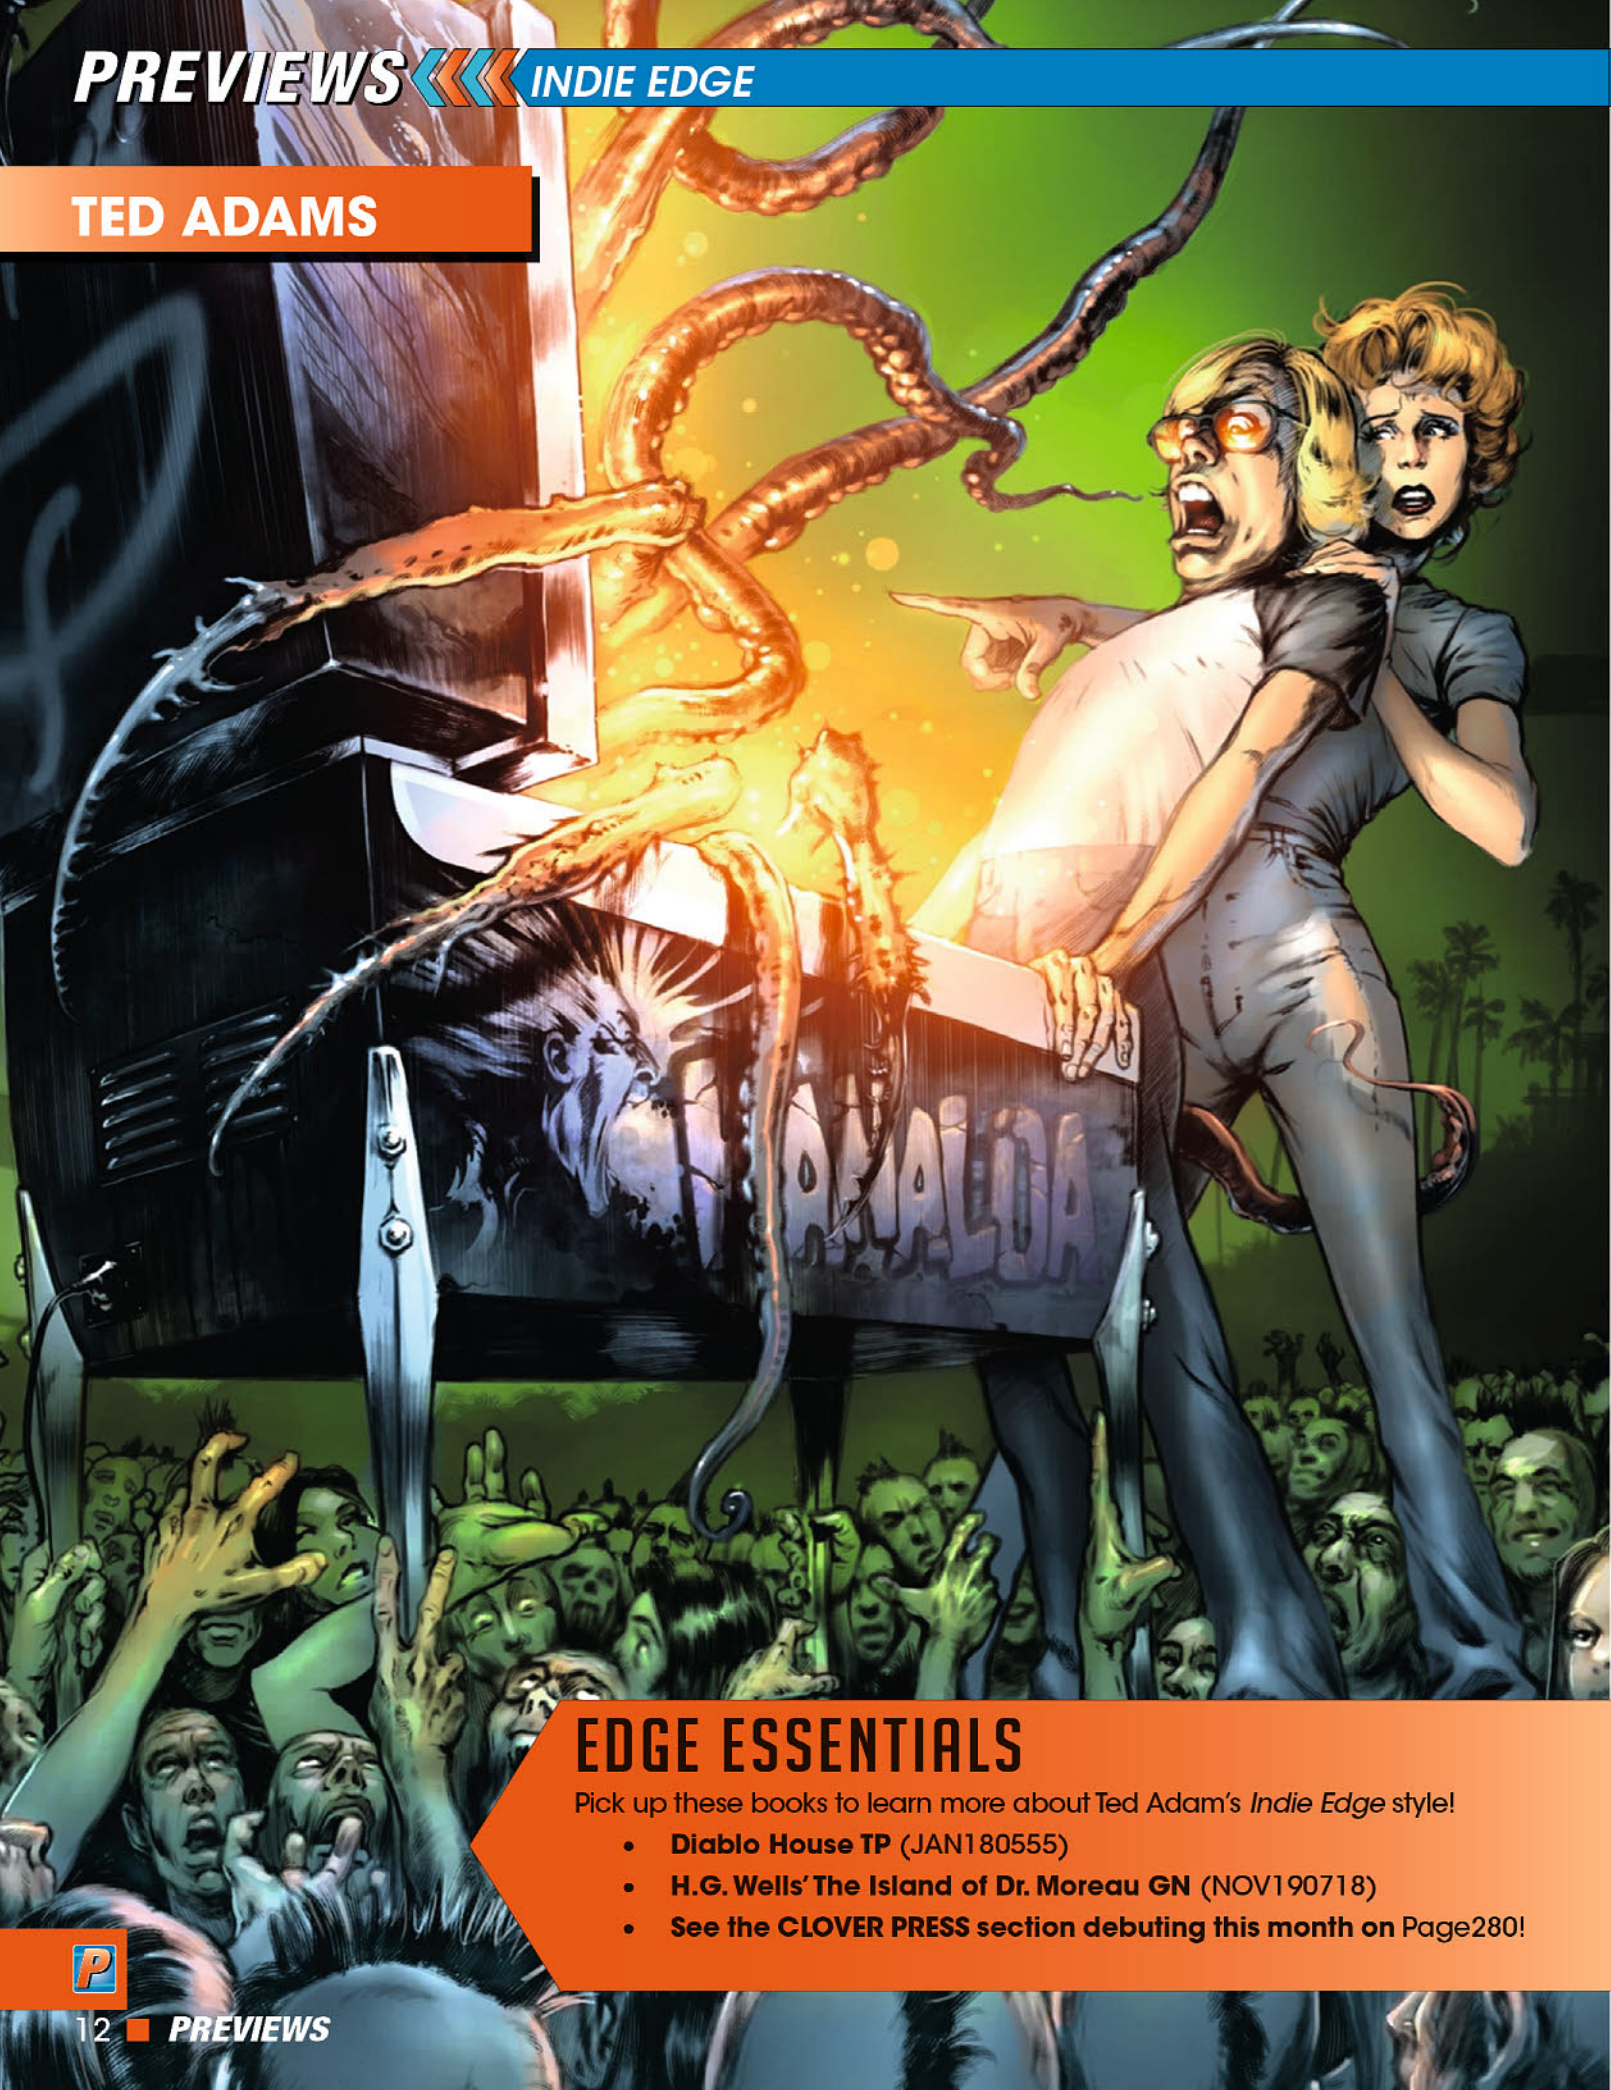

While working for an African mercenary in Egypt, Spector stumbles upon an ancient temple where artifacts include a statue of the Egyptian moon god Khonshu. Following a fight, in which Spector is left for dead, Egyptians who worship the ancient gods carry him to their temple. Khonshu appears to Spector in a vision, offering him a second chance at life if he becomes the god's avatar on Earth. Deciding to become a crimefighter, Spector creates a silver cloaked costume and becomes Moon Knight.

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

2020 will be my 30th anniversary of working in comics. I started my career at Eclipse where I worked for Dean Mullaney and cat yronwode. From there, I went to Dark Horse, working for Bob Schreck and Mike Richardson; WildStorm, working for Jim Lee and John Nee; and Todd McFarlane Productions, working for Todd and Terry Fitzgerald. In 1999, we started IDW and I worked there for 19 years, primarily as the company's CEO and Publisher. I've also written a number of comics, mostly adaptations of video games, movies, and novels; and have a creator-owned title, Diablo House, that was co-created and drawn by Santiperez. I'm lucky to have a beautiful wife who loves books almost as much as I do and a cool son who loves hockey as much as I do books.

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

As a publisher: Joe Hill and Gabriel Rodriguez's Locke & Key (Master Ed. Vol. 1 HC/DEC140577); Darwyn Cooke's Parker adaptations (Martini Edition Vol. 1 HC/NOV190719); What Fools These Mortals Be: The Story of Puck; Fear & Loathing in Las Vegas (AUG150325), adapted by Troy Little; all of the Artist's Editions; and all of the books that I published with Top Shelf, Library of American Comics and Yoe! Books.

As a writer: Getting to work with Gabriel Rodriguez on an adaptation of The Island of Doctor Moreau (NOV190718) was a dream come true. I also had a ton of fun creating Diablo House (JAN180555) with Santiperez.

What are you currently working on?

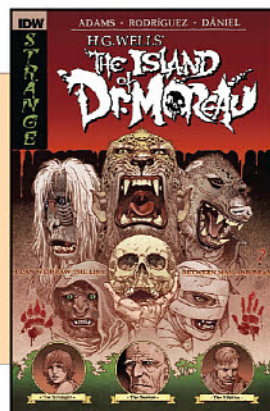

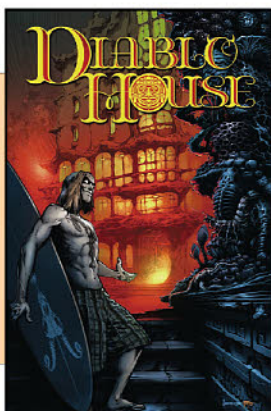

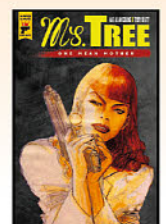

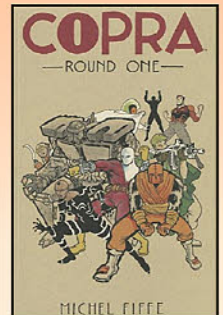

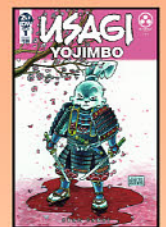

As a publisher: I'm proud to be publishing a new collection of Will Eisner's The Spirit (See Page 281!) When we first started publishing comics at IDW, Mr. Eisner let us do a book based on his John Law character, and I was extremely grateful to him for choosing us!

As a writer: I'm working on an adaptation of a classic (arguably "the" classic) American novel that will be out in early 2021. We also have plans to bring back Diablo House and I'll be writing at least one story for that book.

I've also been slowly working on a graphic novel biography of Theodore Roosevelt and a non-fiction book called 25 Comics That Changed the World. I wrote a book about my experience starting and running IDW that will only ever be read by my wife.

What fun titles are you reading?

Copra by Michael Fiffe, Criminal by Ed Brubaker and Sean Phillips, Maria M. by Gilbert Hernandez, Usagi Yojimbo by Stan Sakai, Drawing Blood by Kevin Eastman, David Avallone, and Ben Bishop; Ms. Tree: One Mean Mother by Max Allan Collins and Terry Beatty; Shock, edited by Joe Pruett; Ghost Tree by Bobby Curnow and Simon Gane; and the list goes on and on...

There are a lot of really good comics right now. It feels like a surge of energy and new ideas, with an incoming class of young creators hungry to show off what they can do, while the big guns of the last few generations are coming back with big new ideas of their own.

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

THE BEST IS BACK! THE DAWN BREAKS FOR WOLVERINE IN HIS NEW SOLO SERIES

Though Mutantkind has hit strides in the quest for peace, death and destruction always seem to find Wolverine. That trend continues in the new Wolverine series by Benjamin Percy, Adam Kubert, and Victor Bogdanovic hitting stores this February!

Throughout Logan's long life, death has been a constant. He has witnessed it. He has dealt it to many foes. He has experienced it himself. Now, on the island of Krakoa, as a new age dawns for Earth's mutants, he has found peace among his friends. He has finally found happiness – or so he thinks. As an old enemy resurfaces and endangers everything he cares about, Wolverine will have to return to his berserker ways. The stakes are high, the Russian mutant Omega Red awaits, and Wolverine has no choice but to answer with force.

Benjamin Percy, the writer of X-Force, unleashes Wolverine in the bold new world of Dawn of X. Matched with the dynamic artwork of Adam Kubert (X-Men) and Victor Bogdanovic (Action Comics), Wolverine promises to be a brutal yet essential addition to the X-Men line as Logan defends those dearest to him!

Logan will once again draw his claws in Marvel Comics' new Wolverine solo book this February, and no Marvel mutant fan can miss it!

ERIK LARSEN'S SAVAGE DRAGON REACHES ITS LANDMARK 250TH ISSUE

In the summer of 1992 Erik Larsen introduced comic book readers to the Savage Dragon, a green skinned, super strong humanoid being who fought crime as a member of the Chicago Police Department alongside beat cops and super-heroes such as the Freak Force. This spring, Larsen's Savage Dragon reaches its 250th issue in Image Comics' oversized issue!

A story told in real time, Savage Dragon now centers on Malcolm Dragon, the son of the original Dragon, and his friends and family. The 100-page Savage Dragon #250 ties together storylines and sets the stage for the next phase of Savage Dragon. Featuring covers from Larsen, Frank Cho, Rob Liefeld, Walter Simonson, and Skottie Young, Savage Dragon #250 is an event that no Image Comics fan can miss!

Everything changes one day when a very tiny pony named Jean-Pierre tells her a secret – Louison has the powers of a pony and must rein in, like a cowboy, the monsters that are threatening her school! In Marie Spenale's graphic novel Wonder Pony, now available in English from BOOM! Studios, Louison will have to discover the strength she never knew she had, make the friends that will help her on her way, and find her place in school, all challenges that ordinary, non-pony sixth graders will face. IRENE ADLER IS ON A MISSION TO TAKE DOWN SHERLOCK'S GREATEST NEMESIS, MORIARTY!

Uncover the hidden story behind one of the most famous female characters of Victorian fiction in Adler #1.

For Sherlock, there was only ever one woman who could match his wit. Now Irene Adler is on a journey to bring together a host of famous Victorian heroines from science, history and literature featuring iconic figures such as Jane Eyre, Lady Havisham, Marie Curie, Carmilla and Ayesha!

We sat down with World Fantasy Award Winning writer Lavie Tidhar to learn more about this exciting new title that he created alongside artist Paul McCaffrey.

LAVIE TIDHAR

You have written across multiple genres and styles. Is there anything you particularly enjoy about writing comics that you do not find as much in novels or short stories?

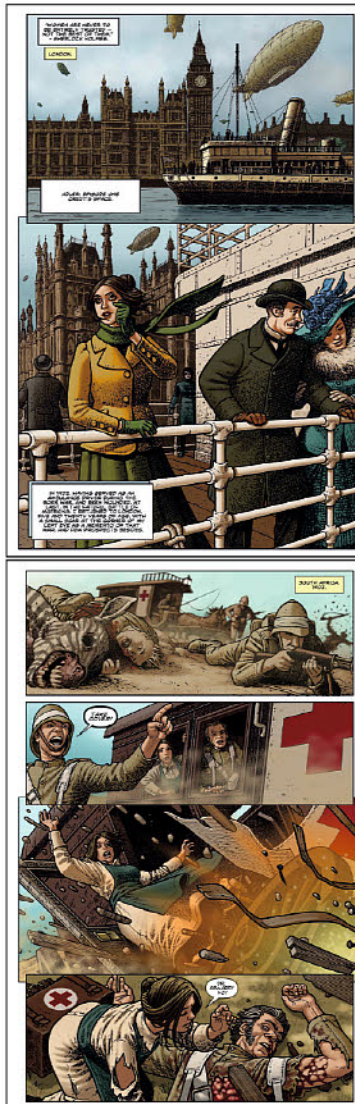

Obviously, the art! It's a much more collaborative form of writing and I love working with artists. There's a magic in writing something and then seeing it come to life (even if Paul complained I made him draw some super-complicated stuff!). It's a very different way of writing, but very satisfying!

What was it that first attracted you to the story of Irene Adler?

I'm a big Holmesian fan and I've always loved the character. She briefly pops up in my Bookman Histories trilogy, too, so it was great to kind of re-imagine her here.

Did you work closely with the original source material when developing these characters or did you want to have more of your own take on their background?

It's pretty revisionist, obviously – which is part of the fun! But at the same time I think, at least as the writer, you should be aware of your source material as well as the history and politics of the era. The fun thing with London is, much of that history is still around you. I get an enormous kick from going to Simpson's in the Strand, which was Holmes' favourite restaurant. It's still there! So we put it in the comic too.

Without revealing too much, what can you tell us about the focus of the story?

I think Paul put it best once, describing it as hopefully an entertaining action romp with some degree of political relevance.

Are there any characters that feature in the comic that you wish you could have explored further?

Well, we have tentative plans for more Adler (if we get the chance!). I'd love to see more of our version of Queen Victoria, for one. She's so wonderfully monstrous!

How have you enjoyed working alongside Paul McCaffrey and what do his illustrations add to the comic?

I worked with Paul before and we're very in sync, which I think is important! I adore his work. I think it would be fair to say his artwork is the comic. Honestly, I think it's stunning. He could well turn out to be one of the great comics artists of our time... If he'd only listen to me!

SELECT PRAISE FOR

BITTER ROOT

"The comic is by an all-black creative team and features a predominantly black cast of characters in the 1920s—embracing the black artistic creativity of the Harlem Renaissance but also recognizing the racism of the time."

—THE WASHINGTON POST

"Relentless action... a kinetic style."

—LIBRARY JOURNAL

"The tragedy and family drama at the heart of Image Comics' new series BITTER ROOT may be the most traditional thing about a comic that is, at heart, anything but traditional."

—THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

"Historical fiction mixes with supernatural horror, producing a hybrid fantasy world of voodoo spells, mad science, monster Klansmen, and Jazz Age demon hunters wielding steampunk versions of Ghostbusters proton packs... Comics fans will look forward to future volumes of this energetic dark fantasy that effectively mixes thrills and scares."

—PUBLISHERS WEEKLY

"Puts a monstrous face on bigotry and a beautiful new spin on the Harlem Renaissance."

—THE ONION'S AV CLUB

"Confident in itself and doesn't need to rely on overwrought high-concept themes. BITTER ROOT isn't afraid to tackle weighty issues while still having some fun, giving us some new heroes that are much needed in today's world."

TIME OUT—FOREVER

This is my mother.

Her name is Sofia Fuentes. She is forty-three years, four months and six days old, and was born in San Diego, California.

I've been staring at her for ten minutes and twenty seconds so I know she's been dead at least that long.

If I think about what's happened to her much longer, I'll have a total meltdown.

My brain will stop working properly. I'll quit functioning. I'll be a mess.

So for now, forgive me if I concentrate on Schnittke's cello concerto number two.

The piece I played at my audition for the prestigious West Side College of Music, New York.

That's professor Kahan. Clarinet and trombone. Quite good in his day, I hear.

KAKK...
KAKK...
KAKK...!!

I don't mean to come across as callous--I'm neuro-atypical, not a monster--but there's really nothing I can do to save him.

Besides, I have my own problem.

That bump you heard is nothing to fear. It's just a were-wolf. Oh, they're real. Monsters are real. But fear not, horror hounds, for there is a new huntress battling the creatures of evil and she may just save humanity . . . if we can keep her sober long enough. She's none other than the local TV station's late-night horror host . . . Jerri Bartman, Count Crowley, the Reluctant Midnight Monster Hunter. Collects the four-issue miniseries.

"I was thrilled to see a classic style horror comic in the era of blood, gore, and just in-your-face slasher horror. I cannot wait to read the rest of this series."

LETTER TO TMNT FANS

Hey, All!

If you haven't been following along with the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles recently, there have been a lot of big changes going on. First and foremost, there's a new Turtle!

In issue 95, Donatello was forced to use some of the mysterious ooze to save the life of Jennika, Splinter's Chunin. But when the ooze combined with the blood transfusion that she was receiving from Leo, the resulting mixture caused her to mutate into a Turtle as well.

Yep, you read that correctly, the Turtles now have a sister!

Jennika has always been a fascinating character, but her story is now moving in directions none of us could have ever anticipated. When she was first introduced to readers, she was the Shredder's lead assassin. But despite that, when Splinter defeated Shredder and took control of the Foot, Jenn was still chosen to continue as Splinter's Chunin. Her honor and devotion to the way of the ninja easily endeared her to Splinter and the Turtles, but it's been her quiet contradictions that have consistently made her such a fan favorite. She's a killer, but with scruples. She's mentally strong, yet easily led astray. And she's a fiercely devoted disciple, but with a past that's shrouded in mystery.

Back in 2017, I had the chance to shed some light on her mysterious origins in the back-up story, "What is Ninja?" (TMNT Universe #6-9). The story alluded to Jennika's early life on the streets, how she found (and then lost) community within the New York punk scene, how she was continually taken advantage of by the people she loved, and how the Shredder used those vulnerabilities to mold her into a killer. It was a small glimpse into her humble beginnings, but one, because of its brevity, which left a lot to the imagination.

Now I'm getting the chance to expand on Jennika's story in a three-issue mini-series, which I will write and illustrate. It will revisit Jenn's past and continue to explore how she's been handling the recent "changes" in her life—all while being tested by a world that's changing just as rapidly as she is. I'm very excited about having the opportunity to continue to add to her history and to further refine the complex character that she has always been.

The first issue will be dropping in February. I hope you'll all check it out!

Thanks!

Brahm Revel

Summer, 1994. With just two months left before college, Elodie is forced by her mother to take a job as a camp counselor. She doesn't know the first thing about nature, or sports, of kids for that matter, and isn't especially interested in learning... but now she's responsible for a foul-mouthed horde of girls who just might win her over. But just as Elodie starts getting used to her new environment — and close to one of the other counselors — a dark mystery lurking around the camp begins to haunt her dreams.

From before Superman to today, there have been many thousands of bizarre, rare, and fascinating FREE comic books given out at gas stations, schools, state fairs, clinics, political rallies, churches, shoe stores, and in cereal boxes. At last, the unknown and astonishing story of promotional comics is told in this thick, hardcover, full-color coffee table book featuring a plethora of incredible covers and absorbing full stories.

Besides teaching the public to love corn and hate commies, these lost treasures sold cars and cigars, elected and defeated politicians, were both for and against smoking and drinking, saved souls, taught people how to milk cows and repair tractors, fought for civil rights, and told the public how to buy a TV and avoid VD. And are now saving lives!

These rare giveaway comics feature cool, out of the left field artists, but also top creators! You'll see Kirby, Eisner, Ditko, Wood, Crandall, Everett, DeCarlo, Kurtzman, Kubert, Stan Lee, and more! PLUS Neal Adams and Charles Schulz' very first work!

You'll also see familiar characters like Batman, Charlie Brown, Captain Marvel, Flash Gordon, Bugs Bunny, and Spider-Man! But your jaw will drop at the comics' wacky spokestoons: talking weiners, shoes, cigars, transistors, milk machines, fuses, barbwire and condoms! And there's the NRA's attempt to appeal to kids with a comic featuring a half puppy/half gun named Blooie!

It's the greatest WHODUNIT of our time... or a new low for "Presidential Harassment!"

Shannon Wheeler, Eisner Award-winning New Yorker cartoonist (Too Much Coffee Man, *Sh*t My President Says*, God is Disappointed in You), and veteran journalist Steve Duin (The Oregonian, Comics: Between the Panels, Oil and Water) turn their critical eye on The Mueller Report—a comprehensive, understandable, and readable graphic novel version of the book every patriot needs.

Fight the spin spewing forth from both parties and political pulpits and check out this graphic novel that brings a 400-page legal document down to size. Wheeler and Duin, in graphic form, bring to life scenes detailed in the report: from the infamous Trump Tower Meeting of 2016 to Trump exclaiming "I'm f*cked" upon finding out he was the subject of investigation. It's in the report and it's in the graphic novel!

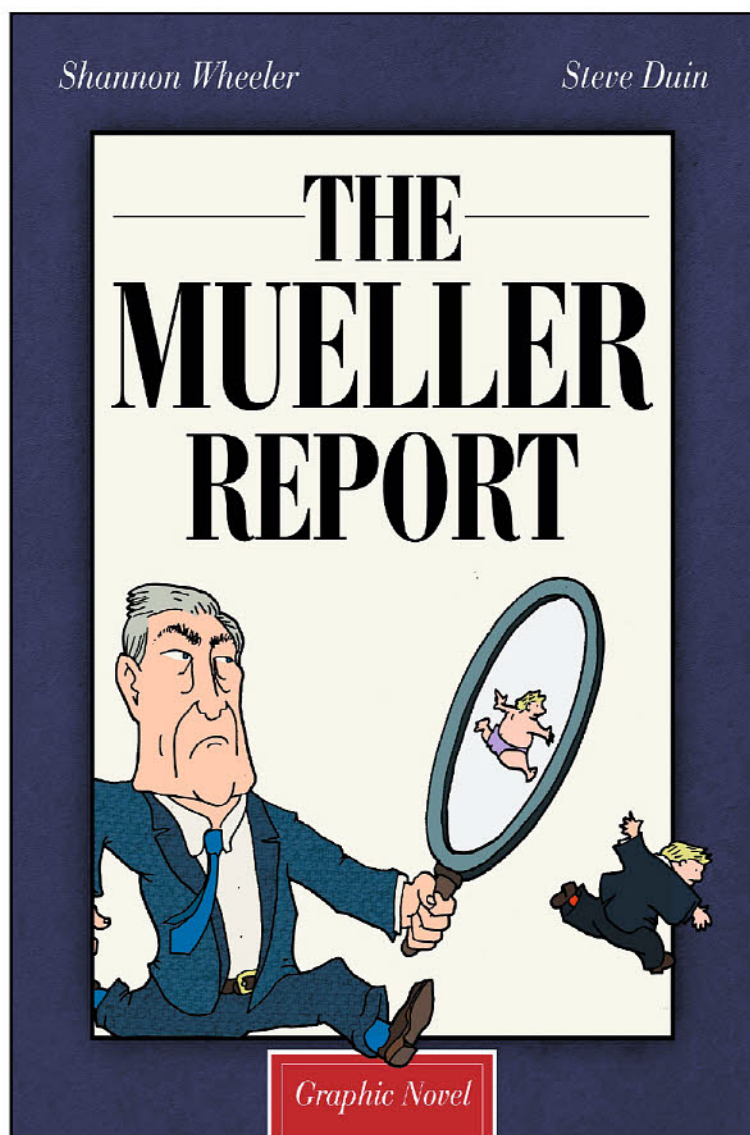

The Mueller Report: Graphic Novel borrows style from classic private detective yarns, complete with a villainous rogues' gallery, nail-biting cliffhangers, and a lone lawman standing proud against the wave of crime.

See Trump berate his Attorney General. Watch a petulant Commander-in-Chief lob insults at the White House counsel. Witness the "witch hunt" as it happened, cataloged as only the top lawman in the country could!

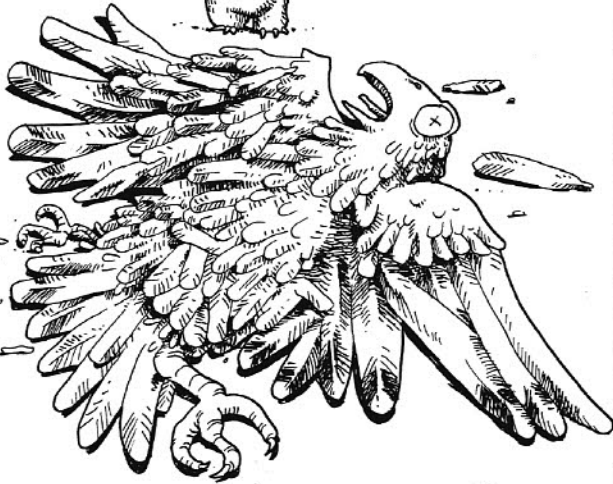

This staggering laundry list of questionable contacts, misleading statements, unreported engagements, and possible coordination—enough to stun any student of the U.S. Constitution—is laid bare with a cold, satirical edge.

Now includes new BONUS MATERIAL! Wheeler and Duin take on the Ukrainian Call and the Whistleblower Complaint that ignited the Impeachment!

You'll laugh. You'll cry. You may Tweet in anger. But most importantly, you will be reading the report for yourself!

 The title "LOCKE & KEY" is rendered in a large, white, serif font. The letters are set against a dark background with a subtle pattern of keys. A large, ornate key is positioned horizontally across the top of the letters, with its head on the left and its shaft extending to the right. The key has a circular head with a cross-like design. The letters "LOCKE" are in a slightly larger font than "& KEY".

LOCKE & KEY

JOE HILL AND GABRIEL RODRÍGUEZ WELCOME YOU BACK TO KEYHOUSE!

Locke & Key tells the story of the Locke siblings who return to their ancestral home of Keyhouse following their father's gruesome murder. Keyhouse is a place of both wonder and fear, filled with dark doors and the magic keys that open them, and also home to a malicious presence that will stop at nothing in its quest for the Omega Key and the unspeakable prize it unlocks.

Modern master of horror Joe Hill (The Fireman, NOS4A2, Full Throttle) has ingeniously honed the story to a razor's edge that shreds the nerves and tugs the heartstrings, while the unparalleled art of Gabriel Rodríguez (the Eisner Award-winning Little Nemo: Return to Slumberland) enlivens both the characters and their world with irresistible terror.

WRITER RYAN PARROTT AND ARTIST JACOB EDGAR GET GROOVY!

What's your history with Ash Williams as a fan?

Ryan: Let's just say, I play exclusively with Ash in the horror game "Dead by Daylight" and I've read Bruce Campbell's memoir "If Chins Could Kill." I think that qualifies me as a fan. Most heroes are crippled by doubt and responsibility, but the thing I've always loved about Ash as a character is his blissful arrogance and complete lack of self-awareness. It makes him wonderfully unique and a joy to write.

Jacob: I think I knew Bruce Campbell from "Brisco County Jr." before anything else, then "Hercules" and "Xena." So I was later than most on "Evil Dead" and "Army of Darkness". I think Ash is an easy character to love, which is impressive because if you actually knew Ash in reality, I don't think he'd be in your MySpace Top 8. Remember that? Anyway, I don't know if any character has ever more begrudgingly saved the world. Ash isn't exactly a hero, but I wouldn't call him an anti-hero either... he's something special in between that's a lot of fun.

This series picks up shortly following the end of the "Army of Darkness" film. Where is Ash at that leads him on this unexpected journey?

Ryan: He's the same Ash we all hate to love. Arrogant, brash and desperate to just eat, drink and be left alone. But it's been six months since those events and he's still being hounded by the Deadites at every turn. So Ash takes the Necronomicon to a local community college professor in the hopes of freeing himself from his hero responsibilities. Unfortunately, you get what you pay for and, well... things obviously don't go exactly as planned.

Jacob Edgar art

As fans can see from the beautiful covers, this wild series is effectively a team book with all these different versions of Ash. As the current architect of the "Power Rangers" comics, you have some experience with juggling a sizable cast. What has been your approach in differentiating all these similar yet different characters? Besides the one and only, which Ash has been your favorite to write?

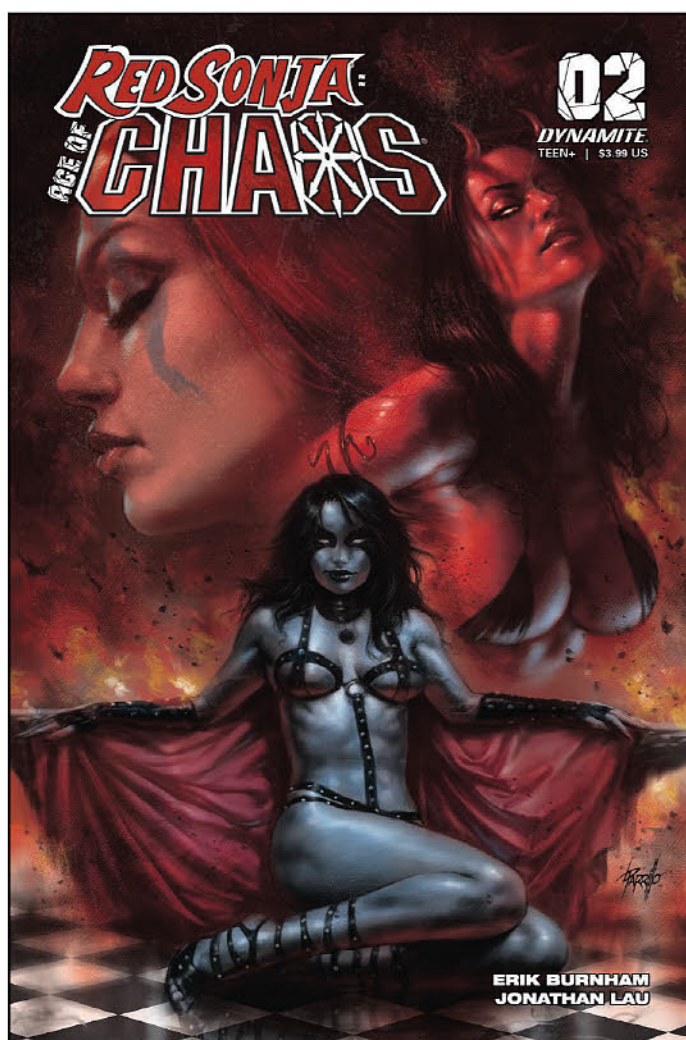

Ryan: I've always had a soft spot for "found families" and misfit stories. And Ash is sorta the ultimate misfit hero. With "Team Ash," since all the members are actually facets of Ash's psyche, the hard part was making sure they all felt like Ash, but weren't just five brash, arrogant jerks. They had to all have different desires and points of view. And incidentally, figuring that out made Ashley, Ash's badass feminine side, probably my favorite of the group to write. Who knew Ash even had a feminine side?

This series marks the "main stage" debut of artist Jacob Edgar, following acclaimed shorter showings. How has it been seeing him bring your scripts to the page?

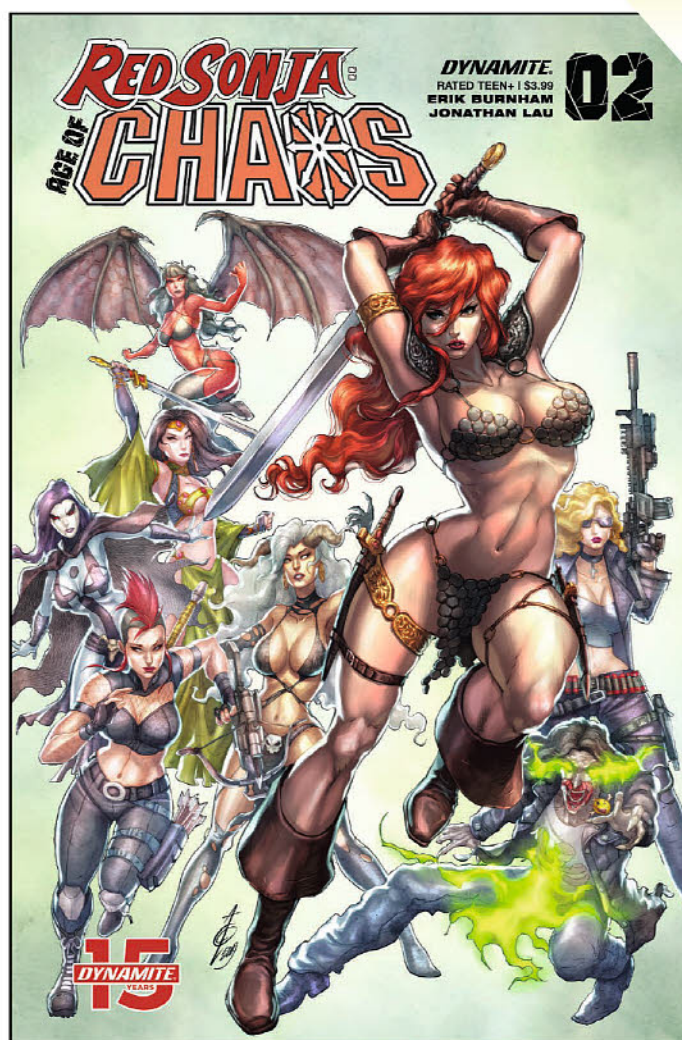

Ryan: The absolute best moment in the comic book process for a writer is when you start getting the first pages of art and you get to see what was only in your head laid out before you. "Army of Darkness" is such a unique title in that it combines both grizzly horror and insane comedy, but Jacob's grounded, moody style really does a fantastic job of balancing the two. I can't wait to see him tackle some of insane ideas we've got coming up. It's gonna be wild!

Jacob, you've got quite the task drawing six distinct versions of Ash in this series. How are you going about defining these characters on the page? Do you have a favorite among the gang?

Jacob: Yeah, besides their visual differences, which are pretty extreme across the board, Ryan has given them all a dominant personality trait of Ash's that's really helpful for me to pull from. We've got a skeleton who embodies Ash's fears, for one. Which is a fun thing to play with. Typically if you're seeing a living skeleton in a story like this, odds are they're some kind of evil killing machine. But in our story he's going to be the most vulnerable and frightened of the bunch. I'm a big time dog person though, so Dash is probably my favorite by default.

IT'S A PERSONAL QUEST SONJA'S EGO CAN'T ACCEPT.

Red Sonja is fully made to understand that her victory over Kulan Gath not only led to the invasion of her world by a whole new kind of evil, but may cause time itself to end... much to the delight of the goddess of death, Mistress Hel. Only Sonja can set things right — but what she needs to do so will cost her a bargain with Lady Demon, as well as a personal quest her ego doesn't want to accept. Thankfully she has backup in the form of the half-vampire, Chastity — and a good thing, too. To fix the path of fate, Sonja will need all the help she can get! The AGE OF CHAOS continues here!

THE ENLISTED SCRIBES TALK THE FAMOUS AGENT

What makes James Bond such a timeless character and so compelling to tackle as a writer?

PERCY: Bond epitomizes cool. He wears the sharpest suits, drives the sleekest cars, owns the wildest gadgets. Men want to be him, women want to be with him. He never shies from danger. He always says the right thing, usually with a confident smile curling the corner of his mouth. He's aspirational. Through him, we can dream of shrugging off our insecurities and making an impact in the world.

But that veneer of perfection hides a relatable flaw. He is emotionally scarred, numb, cold. This is a person who does horrible things for a greater good. So he drinks liver-deadening amounts of booze and sleeps around and discards those close to him so that he can armor himself against horrors.

"THE THING I'VE ALWAYS FOUND FASCINATING ABOUT JAMES BOND IS THAT HE'S A KILLER WHO PRETENDS TO BE A RICH AND SOPHISTICATED MAN IN ORDER TO GET AT OTHER RICH AND SOPHISTICATED MEN WHO ARE, IN FACT, KILLERS."

— MARK RUSSELL

AYALA: To me, what makes James Bond timeless is that he is that he can adapt to any situation, smoothly and with a cool no one can match. What that does, on a meta level, is make him able to be placed in any context, because the core parts of him are his resolve, his suaveness, and his ability to alter himself to the situation at hand — and all of THAT is timeless.

For me, what makes him so compelling to work with is his complexity. James is a man who has dedicated his life to protecting his country, to SAVING lives, but he does it often by killing. He is a man who uses his charm and sexuality to achieve his goals, but there are tender, very vulnerable parts of him that he exposes to pain to do so. I love spies as a concept, and James is the epitome of Spy.

LORE: Bond is enduring because he's all about competence and style; even when he's wrong, he does it with such panache that we want him to come out on top. He's the calm in the storm that solves the problems that feel too big for one guy to solve, and does it while barely messing up the hem of his trousers. That kind of ingenuity and class and charm sticks with us as readers and as writers — in part because we know that he's entangled in darkness while still being able to don that classic smirk.

PAK: I love Bond stories for their glorious combo of sci-fi and spy thriller, their dry humor, their emphasis on a cool professional doing the impossible, and their joy in mind-blowing action set pieces. I love the Odd Job stories I've been able to do for throwing a cocky, passionate improviser in the mix and seeing him drive Bond out of his mind. I'm hugely excited to get another bite of the apple with this story and hope both Bond and Odd Job fans enjoy reading it as much as we're enjoying making it.

DIGGLE: It's all too easy to feel hopeless and helpless against powerfully malevolent forces in our world, but James Bond encapsulates the idea that one man — one person — can make a difference. He endures, he persists, and he prevails. It's clear in Ian Fleming's work that Bond has a strong sense of moral outrage at the villains' disregard for human life. He knows right from wrong, and he's fighting the good fight for "us."

"BOND EPITOMIZES COOL."

— BEN PERCY

SIMONE: It's an interesting thing, because I read several of the Fleming books before ever seeing a proper Bond film, and I liked that spy. He wasn't incredibly noble, he didn't have a lot of human empathy. But he was the man for the job. He was a human being who had to go to some dark places. That's my favorite Bond. I love the stunts and glamour, I love the locations and gadgets, all of that. But the Bond I most enjoy is the guy who goes where the snakes are, so the rest of us don't have to.

RUSSELL: The thing I've always found fascinating about James Bond is that he's a killer who pretends to be a rich and sophisticated man in order to get at other rich and sophisticated men who are, in fact, killers. In that sense, he's a great metaphor for modern plutocratic democracy.

writer: Warren Ellis

cover: Dominic Reardon

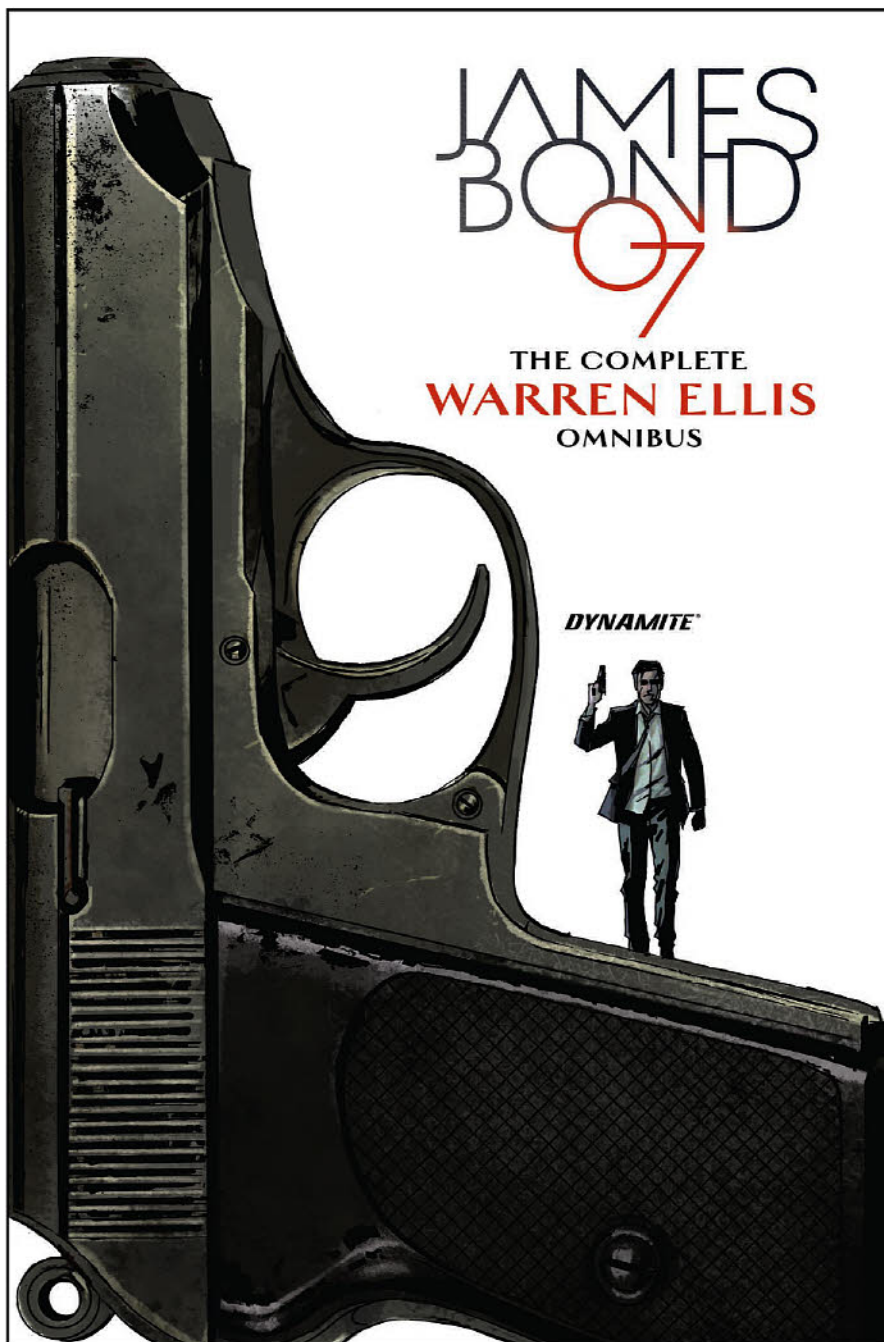

After a mission of vengeance in Helsinki, James Bond returns to London and assumes the workload of a fallen 00 Section agent. His new mission takes him to Berlin, presumably to break up an agile drug-trafficking operation. But Bond has no idea of the forces gathered in secret against him, the full scope of an operation that's much scarier and more lethal than he could possibly imagine. Berlin is about to catch fire... and James Bond is trapped inside. Dynamite Entertainment proudly presents VARGR, the debut storyline in the all new James Bond comic book series, as crafted by masterful writer WARREN ELLIS (Transmetropolitan, The Authority) and artist JASON MASTERS (Batman Incorporated, Guardians of the Galaxy).

James Bond is trapped in Los Angeles with a MI6 agent under fire and a foreign intelligence service trying to put them both in bags... and possibly more than one foreign intelligence service. And things may not be any safer in Britain, with bodies dropping and ghosts moving in the political mist...

AN INSPIRING GRAPHIC MEMOIR IN THE TRADITION OF THE BEST
WE COULD DO & THEY CALLED US ENEMY

In China, an entire generation's most formative years took place in remote rural areas when city kids were sent to the countryside to become rusticated youth and partake in Mao's mandated Great Leap Forward. In an inspiring tale, Emei Burell shares her mother's true experience during the Down to the Countryside Movement of the early 1970s, which sought to increase agricultural outreach and spur social and ideological change amongst youth.

Burell's stunning illustrations honor her mother's courage, strength, and determination during a decade of tremendous political upheaval.

A NEW SCI-FI
THRILLER FOR FANS
OF PAPER GIRLS
AND SOMETHING IS KILLING THE CHILDREN!

Acclaimed writer Simon Spurrier (John Constantine Hellblazer, Coda) and artist Chris Wildgoose (Batgirl, Batman: Nightwalker) present a subversive coming-of-age story about having all the power to change the world but the unready hands to truly wield it.

Three teenagers, each an outcast in their own way, stumble upon an unearthly entity as it's born. As they bond over this shared secret and the creature's incredible abilities, it becomes clear to the teenagers that their cute little pet is a superpredator in the making—and it's in need of prey. Guided by the best intentions at first, the teens' decisions soon become corrupted by adolescent desires, small town jealousies, and internal rivalries, sending them into a catastrophic spiral of their own making.

—Scott Snyder,
Batman

When the children of Archer's Peak begin to go missing, everything seems hopeless. The few children that return alive have terrible stories—impossible details of terrifying creatures that live in the shadows. Their only hope is the arrival of a mysterious stranger, one who believes the children and claims to be the only one who sees what they can see. Her name is Erica Slaughter. She kills monsters. That is all she does, and she bears the cost because it must be done.

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

Simon "Si" Spurrier writes novels, TV and comics. His work in the latter field stretches from award-winning creator-owned books such as Coda (Vol. 1/APR198528), Angelic (Vol. 1: Heirs & Graces/MAR180601), and The Spire (AUG161312), to projects in the U.S. mainstream like Sandman Universe Presents: Hellblazer (#1/AUG190456), The Dreaming (Vol.1: Pathways & Emanations/MAR190577), and X-Men (Legacy: Legion Omnibus/OCT161003). It all began with a series of twist-in-the-tail stories for the UK's beloved 2000 AD!

His prose works range from the beatnik neurosis-noir of Contract to the experimental e-novella Unusual Concentrations, a tale of coffee and crime which was shortlisted for the Shirley Jackson Award.

He's worked in several writers' rooms for high-tier US television productions and is developing multiple new projects. He lives in Margate, regards sushi as part of the plotting process, and has a cat which thinks it's a dog. His blog, and all other info, can be found at simonspurrier.com.

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

Coda (BOOM! Studios) is a broken fantasy about one man and his angry mutant unicorn in a post-magical world, and features the truly visionary art of Matias Bergara, for which he was justly nominated for an Eisner award!

Angelic (Image Comics) is my YA book about a young winged monkey coming of age on a planet Earth deserted by humanity, and populated only by the remnants of mankind's sick scientific experiments.

The Spire (BOOM! Studios) is a crime procedural in the last city on Earth. Mixing elements of sci-fi and fantasy in a crumbling, Gormenghastian setting, The Spire is an Eisner-nominated tale about murder, guilt, prejudice and secrecy.

As well as the above three highlighted titles, it would be remiss not to mention X-Men Legacy. Not only a longform superhero story, but a character-piece which (necessarily) leaned into the subject of mental health. Although not, I hope, in a preachy or ham-fisted way. To this day I'm humbled and moved by the number of readers who approach me at comics conventions to say this book gave them the strength to begin the process that ends with the revelation: I rule me.

I'm also beyond excited to be relaunching Hellblazer. It's a book — and a character — I've been drawn to since I first discovered comics. A real privilege.

What are you currently working on?

I'm currently in the process of proudly winding-down two of my longest projects: Star Wars: Doctor Aphra, for which I will have written 28 issues by the time we wrap, and which has been one long blast of ridiculous fun and treachery! And The Dreaming, which has been an honor to work on since Neil Gaiman chose me to helm it, and has settled Bilquis Evely in my mind as one of the single greatest artists working in comics today. I'm dropping the mic on my run in 2020, but — fear not — the next chapter is in very, very safe hands!

Which leaves me with two titles on the slate I'm allowed to talk about. There's Hellblazer, which (at last!) allows me to get my dirty hands on John Constantine, that perennial anti-hero. As the blurb says: he may not be the hero we need, but he's definitely the bastard we deserve! And then last, but definitely not least: Alienated! A new creator-owned miniseries from my beloved home away from home, BOOM! Studios — with art by the insanely talented Christian Wildgoose — which is the story of three teenage outcasts who find an alien superpredator in the woods one day. They use it to murder a bully. And hijinks ensue.

What fun titles are you reading?

Something is Killing the Children (Vol. 1/See Page 203!): Smart horror done right. Oozes menace and atmosphere without making the usual mistake of confusing tension with silence. LOTS of great dialogue (by James Tynion IV) which enhances rather than detracts from the horror. Love this book.

Sara (TKO): Some of Ennis's best work, in my opinion. A masterclass in pacing and escalating tension, gorgeously drawn by Steve Epting. A tight, grim little gem which drips with bitter verisimilitude!

Killer Groove (Vol. 1 TP/NOV191378): The kind of swaggering high-concept crime thriller Ollie Masters excels at, beautifully rendered by Eoin Marron. Feels so naturally cinematic one can almost hear the soundtrack while reading. Some very classy comics.

Newspaper comic strips helped to create the comic book as we know it today, with the earliest collections of popular daily strips of the era serving as a springboard for the stories of adventure, mystery, and super-heroics that followed. Comic strip material from the 1930s to today is still being collected more and more each year; fan-favorite, little-known, and even obscure strips are being painstakingly cleaned up, enhanced, and collected for a whole new audience to experience once again. This month's issue of PREVIEWS is filled with dozens of comic strip, as well as comic book, collections, both new and backlist. Just look throughout this issue for our "From the Archives" icon for more great collections!

In the early 1970s, Ethel Grady Lane returns to her hometown of Sweetheart, Arizona with one thing on her mind: killing the man who murdered her family. But first, she'll have to find him.

As Ethel navigates the eccentric town and its inhabitants, she learns that the quaint veneer hides a brewing darkness. She has no choice but to descend into a ring of depravity and violence, with her only ally an Old West novel that follows famed gunslinger Solomon Eaton. As both stories unfold simultaneously, a love of fiction informs choices in reality, for better or worse.

From the minds of Lonnie Nadler and Zac Thompson (The Dregs, X-Men, HER INFERNAL DESCENT) and artist Sami Kivela (Abbot, Tommy Gun Wizards) comes a neo-western that depicts the hard truth of seeking vengeance in the real world.

AND NOW A SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE EDITOR:

Since we first began publishing in 2014, American Mythology Productions has been producing a vast array of titles, ranging from all-ages children's comics, to science fiction adventures, to horror anthologies and one-shots. Believe me, our talented creators have had a heck of a great time creating all of them!

During the past six years, the support and enthusiasm we've received from fans around the world has been incredible, and that support pushes us to take bold creative leaps, because we want to keep you entertained, no matter what titles you read.

Which brings us to March 2020.

We're about to make another bold leap by refining our focus. What that means is that we're going to give you more of the one thing that you've been screaming for the most over the past few years...

Horror.

Really good, really scary, really mind-numbing horror.

That doesn't mean your favorite genre titles will fall by the wayside. Far from it. You'll still find plenty of Casper, Underdog, Oggy & the Cockroaches, and more. Our Edgar Rice Burroughs line of titles is going to be growing by leaps and bounds in 2020, and just wait until you see what we have planned for Zorro.

But when the sun goes down and the moon rises, our very best creators are going to be working away in their crypts, creating all-new horror titles that are sure to give you the creeps. We have a bunch of brand-new writers who will be making their debuts in the coming months, along with several new artists who know what scares you. Believe me, they know.

What will be our new horror titles? We're not going to tell you just yet, but you'll see a few of them in the very next issue of Previews. Check out our March listings, and be prepared for terror!

AGONY HOUSE SC

(W) Cherie Priest

(A) Tara O'Connor

A haunted house, a killer ghost, and a long-lost comic come to life in another spectacular package of novel and comics from Cherie Priest, author of I Am Princess X! Denise Farber has just moved back to New Orleans with her mom and stepdad. They left in the wake of Hurricane Katrina and have finally returned, wagering the last of their family's money on fixing up an old, rundown house and converting it to a bed and breakfast. Nothing seems to work around the place, which doesn't seem too weird to Denise. The unexplained noises are a little more out of the ordinary, but again, nothing too unusual. But when floors collapse, deadly objects rain down, and she hears creepy voices, it's clear to Denise that something more sinister lurks hidden here! Answers may lie in an old comic book Denise finds concealed in the attic: the lost, final project of a famous artist who disappeared in the 1950s. Denise isn't budging from her new home, so she must unravel the mystery — on the pages and off — if she and her family are to survive! (STL144470) (C: 0-1-0)

LAST SONG #1

(writer) HOLLY INTERLANDI | (artist) SALLY CANTIRINO

$4.99 | 72 pages | b&w | Mature

Nicky Marshall was saved by rock and roll - or so he likes to think. An awkward upbringing and turmoil following his father's suicide led Nicky to form a band called Ecstasy with his childhood friend Drey. The music takes them to Los Angeles, raw and gritty and teeming with personalities. Nicky thinks they're ready for stardom, but no one's ever ready for stardom. This first of four oversized issues begins in the 1980s, grows out of grassroots clubs & introduces Ecstasy to the world - whether it's ready for them or not.

LAST SONG #3

(writer) HOLLY INTERLANDI | (artist) SALLY CANTIRINO

$4.99 | 72 pages | b&w | Mature

A single moment makes Nicky step back for the first time in several years. Suddenly he's living in a house by himself, all his old haunts are unfamiliar, and there's an eerie silence where his best friendship used to be. Attempted catch-up sessions go sour. Rehearsals are rushed and bitter. The songs are still the same, but even they can't drown out the difference. Or, Part 3 of 4, when everything goes to sh-t.

LAST SONG #2

(writer) HOLLY INTERLANDI | (artist) SALLY CANTIRINO

$4.99 | 72 pages | b&w | Mature

When do you know you've made it? When your song first plays on the radio? When a kid recognizes you at the laundromat? When you start getting fan mail? How about on your first tour, or the second; your first magazine cover feature, your first show played while high out of your mind, your first groupie hookup?

For Nicky, it might just be his first drunken confession in a hotel room that alters the path of his friendship forever.

FLEETWAY PICTURE LIBRARY VOL. 3: AIR WAR STORIES SC

(W/A) Various

Originally published in War Picture Library #49 and Air Ace Picture Library #11, #37 and #54, these four stories showcase the art of the great Ferdinando Tacconi. His style is immediately recognizable, with a very clear line work and some interesting curly cues done in pen and ink.

He wisely used an uncluttered art that, with the passage of time, became more and more limited to the essential. The care he applied to the environment and details of each panel he drew, especially in his way of presenting vehicles or his beloved aircraft, made him one of the top artists around the world. In fact, Tacconi would never hide his deep love for flying machines, which accompanied him throughout his career, both inside and outside the comic pages he drew. (STL145128)

FEATURED ITEMS

"A hundred years from now when they publish a collection of the cartoon masters of the 20th Century, Will Eisner will undoubtedly rank high on the list." —HARVEY KURTZMAN

"I am a story-driven animal. What fascinated me about comics was the idea that it was a medium in which you could tell stories that you could not tell with other media and that you could use storytelling in a different way. Without Will Eisner, I don't think I would ever have realized that. Without seeing what he could do, what he did with shape, what he did with form. Everything is about people and what happens to them. This is stuff nobody else was doing in comics. Not in a way that I could grasp and get hold of. To me, what Will did was and is timeless." —NEIL GAIMAN

"Will Eisner is, and remains, one of my precious idols... He never let up, Will didn't. Not in his own work, and not in conversation. He dropped A Contract with God on my field like an atom bomb—creating a movement toward permanence that has, magically but inevitably, persisted." —FRANK MILLER

DARKNESS ON THE EDGE OF TOWN SC NOVEL

(W) Adam Christopher
Chief Jim Hopper reveals long-awaited secrets to Eleven about his old life as a police detective in New York City, confronting his past before the events of the hit show, Stranger Things! Hawkins, Indiana... Christmas 1984. All Chief Jim Hopper wants is to enjoy a quiet first Christmas with Eleven, but his adopted daughter has other plans. Over Hopper's protests, she pulls a cardboard box marked "New York" out of the basement — and the tough questions begin. Why did Hopper leave Hawkins all those years ago? What does "Vietnam" mean? And why has he never talked about New York? Although he'd rather face a horde of demogorgons than talk about his own past, Hopper knows that he can't deny the truth any longer. And so begins the story of the incident in New York changed... (STL144214) (C: 0-1-0)

ABAKAN 2301 SC

(W/A) Luca Zampriolo

Weingart Lieutenant Richard Mertzbow (aka "Mertz") has been stuck on the mysterious Abakan Base in solitude for decades, while war raged on his home planet, Terra, between the ruling Weingart power, which put him on Abakan, and those rebelling against their oppressive rule. One day a young woman suddenly appears at his door, revealing secrets that threaten to unravel his already fragile state of mind. Abakan 2301 picks up where 2011's Abakan 2288, by renowned mecha artist Kallamity, left off. The sequel is an exciting exploration of mecha, narrated by the compelling, but strained voice of Mertz as he navigates a world he does not recognize, alongside Kallamity's, which shares his own complicated adventures in executing his mecha designs. Just as with the first installment, Abakan 2301 features Kallamity's original story illustrations and images of his remarkable mech creations — the Kastor, the Watchel, and Briegel II, to name a few — in all their intricate and colorful glory, with detailed information about their builds, as well as a section featuring prominent artists reimagining Kallamity's remarkable designs. THE CALL OF CTHULHU
ILLUSTRATED HC

(W) H. P. Lovecraft

(A) Francois Baranger

H.P. Lovecraft's The Call of Cthulhu, first published in 1928, is one of the greatest classics of American horror literature. Cthulhu himself, dreaming and waiting at the bottom of the sea, became a symbol for the entire mythology that Lovecraft created. Francois Baranger, an illustrator who has previously worked in film and games, was fascinated early on by Lovecraft's creatures and visions which populated the darkest recesses of fantasy. In this book, he has taken on the work of illustrating Lovecraft's most iconic novel. DISNEY EDITIONS

THE ART OF MULAN:
DISNEY EDITION
CLASSIC HC

(W) Jeff Kuritti,

Michael Schumacher

The Art of Mulan was only Jeff Kuritti's fourth published work, and one of which he remains enormously proud. He is honored to see this important and significant story in print again for new generations, along with some stunning additional visual development artwork and new foreword by Thomas Schumacher. Inspired by a two-thousand-year-old Chinese legend, Mulan was the first animated feature film to be primarily produced by Disney's animation studio at Walt Disney World in Florida. This was a dazzling array of talented and dedicated filmmakers who specialized in traditional hand-drawn animation and collaborated on the musical segment "I Just Can't Wait to Be King" in The Lion King (1994), shorts ranging from the Roger Rabbit cartoon "Tummy Trouble" (1989) to the legendary folktale John Henry (2000), and feature films such as Lilo & Stitch (2002). The Art of Mulan reveals the story behind the making of the film in this distinct place and at this particular time, both of which bridge the Disney animation renaissance of the 1990s and the sensibilities of today's Walt Disney Animation Studios. Like the film's heroine, the Disney artists who created Mulan made a journey of self-discovery that began with a momentous decision: to make a modern film adapted from an ancient Chinese source. The Art of Mulan chronicles their efforts to remain faithful to the spirit of the original legend and the traditions of the Chinese culture, while at the same time make it accessible for an international audience approaching the end of the second millennium. Their words reveal their passion while more than 350 stunning color and black-and-white illustrations showcase their brilliance, all clear reminders of why Mulan has become a fan-favorite of so many who grew up with it. SPOTLIGHT ON

UMMA'S TABLE GN

(W/A/CA) Yeon-Sik Hong

Madang is an artist and new father who moves to a quiet home in the countryside, excited to build a new life with his family. But soon his attention is diverted back to his impoverished parents back in Seoul in a dingy basement apartment. With an ailing mother and an alcoholic father, Madang struggles to overcome the exhaustion of trying to be everything: a good son, devoted father, and loving husband. To cope, he reminisces about their family meals together and his mother's kimchi, a traditional dish that is prepared by the family and requires months of fermentation. A beautiful meditation on how the kitchen and communal cooking-both past, present and future - bind a family together amidst the inevitable. (STL144781) (C: 0-1-2)

HC, 6x8, 360pgs, B&W $29.95

FAMILIAR FACE HC

(W/A/CA) Michael DeForge

The bodies of citizens and the infrastructure surrounding them is constantly updating. People wake up in apartments of completely different sizes and shapes and commuter routes radically differ day to day. There is no way to resist-the updates are enacted by a nameless, faceless force. The signatures of DeForge's work—a vibrant color palette, surreal designs, and self-aware sense of humor — enliven an often-bleak technocratic future. Familiar Face is a masterful and deeply funny exploration of how we define our sense of self, and how we cope when so much of life is out of our control. ESSENTIAL ITEM

ANT COLONY HC

(W/A/CA) Michael DeForge
In the few short years since he began his pamphlet-sized comic book series Lose, Michael DeForge has announced himself as an important new voice in alternative comics. Ant Colony follows the denizens of a black ant colony under attack from the nearby red ants. On the surface, it's the story of this war, the destruction of a civilization, and the ants' all-too-familiar desire to rebuild. Underneath, though, Ant Colony plumbs the deepest human concerns — loneliness, faith, love, apathy, and more. All of this is done with humor and sensitivity, exposing a world where spiders can wreak unimaginable amounts of havoc with a single gnash of their jaws. (STK627922)

LOVE THAT BUNCH HC

(W/A/CA) Aline Kominsky Crumb

Aline Kominsky-Crumb immediately made her mark in the Bay Area's underground comix scene with unabashedly raw, dirty, unfiltered comics chronicling the thoughts and desires of a woman coming of age in the 60's. Kominsky-Crumb traces her steps from a Beatles loving fangirl, East Village groupie, an adult grappling with her childhood, an 80s housewife and mother, to a new 30-page story Dream House that looks back on her childhood, 40 years later. Collecting comics from the 1970s through today, Love That Bunch is shockingly prescient while still being an authentic story of its era. (STL079459)

STICKS ANGELICA, FOLK HERO HC

(W/A/CA) Michael DeForge

Sticks Angelica is, in her own words, "49 years old. Former: Olympian, poet, scholar, sculptor, minister, activist, Governor General, entrepreneur, line cook, headmistress, Mountie, columnist, libertarian, cellist." After a high-profile family scandal, Sticks escapes to the woods to live in what would be relative isolation were it not for the many animals that surround and inevitably annoy her. DeForge's witty dialogue and deadpan narration create a bizarre yet eerily familiar tale of how we build our own sense of self and how others carry on the roles we create for them in our own personal dramas. (STL035887)

BIG KIDS HC

(W) Michael DeForge

(A/CA) Michael DeForge

Big Kids follows a troubled teenage boy through the transformative years of high school, as he redefines his friends, his interests, and his life path. When the boy's uncle, a police officer, gets kicked out of the family's basement apartment and transferred to the countryside, April moves in. She's a college student: mysterious and cool, she quickly takes a shine to the boy. Eerie and perfectly paced, Michael DeForge's Big Kids muses on the complicated, and often contradictory, feelings people struggle with in adolescence, the choices we make to fit in, and the ways we survive times of change. FIRST YEAR HEALTHY HC

(W/A/CA) Michael DeForge

First Year Healthy purports to be the story of a young woman, recently released from the hospital after an outburst, and her burgeoning relationship with an odd, perhaps criminal Turkish immigrant. In a scant 48 pages, working with a vibrant, otherworldly palette of magentas, yellows, and grays, Michael DeForge brings to life a world whose shifting realities are as treacherous as the thin ice its narrator walks on. First Year Healthy is all it appears to be and more: a parable about mental illness, a folk tale about magical cats, and a bizarre, compelling story about relationships. UNCOMFORTABLY HAPPILY GN

(W/A/CA) Yeon-Sik Hong

With gorgeously detailed yet minimal art, cartoonist Yeon-Sik Hong explores his move with his wife to a small house atop a rural mountain, replacing the high-rent hubbub of Seoul with the quiet murmur of the country. With their dog, cats, and chickens by their side, the simple life and isolation they so desperately craved proves to present new anxieties. Hong paints a beautiful portrait of the Korean countryside, changing seasons, and the universal relationships humans have with each other as well as nature, both of which are sometimes frustrating but always rewarding. Uncomfortably Happily is translated by American cartoonist

Hellen Jo from the acclaimed Manhwa Today award-winning Korean edition. (STL042461)

O/A LITTLE LULU HC

(W/A/CA) John Stanley

Lulu Moppet is an outspoken and brazen young girl who doesn't follow any rules—whether they've been set by her parents, the neighborhood boys, or society itself. 2019 D+Q begins a landmark reissue series of Lulu's suburban hijinks: she goes on picnics, baby-sits, and attempts to break into the boys' clubhouse again and again. Cartoonist John Stanley's expert timing and constant gags made these stories unbelievably enjoyable, ensuring that Marge's Little Lulu was a defining comic of the post-war period. Lulu's assertiveness, individuality, and creativity is empowering to witness; the series is powerfully feminist despite the decades in which the stories were created. (STL19879)

ART YOUNG'S

ART YOUNG'S INFERNO

By Art Young; Introduction by Steven Heller;

Foreword by Glenn Bray

$29.99 / HC / 188 pgs / BW / 8" x 11"

In 1934, Art Young created his satirical take on Dante's Inferno, producing not just one of the most searing indictments of capitalism ever published but also an exquisite work of art. Capitalist oligarchs, condemned to Hell, lead a hostile takeover, throw out Satan, and turn the Inferno into the last bastion of the free market. Each page of Young's art has been scanned from the original art and is reproduced here in full color. Inferno also includes a new introduction by Steven Heller, a foreword by editor Glenn Bray, and the original 1934 essays by Young himself.

COWBOY

By Rikke Villadsen

$19.99 / HC / 168 pgs / FC / 6.5" x 8"

In this wild west frontier town, nothing is quite what it seems. Painted ladies soar through the sky, townsfolk flicker and fade, and gender seems as fluid as oozing ink. At the heart of this surreal tale, a restless woman longs to break free from her confinement and ride off into the sunset. Both an homage to the classic Spaghetti Westerns of Sergio Leone and a fiercely feminist send-up of gruff masculinity, Cowboy is a Western unlike any other.

The Comics Journal #305 will shine a light on how the livelihood and artwork created by cartoonists is affected by chronic disease, disability, and our nation's health care system. This issue also features a hand-printed zine created in 1967 by the SNCC and the Black Panther Party reporting about a black community in Alabama that attempted to take back their voting rights in their local elections. There is also a profile on cartoonist Kevin Huizenga (Ganges) that asks the question: After you've finished your magnum opus, now what?

TAD MARTIN: TEARS OF THE LEATHER-BOUND SAINTS

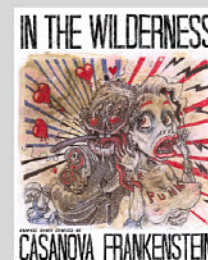

By Casanova Frankenstein

Comic / 48 pgs / FC / 8.625" x 10.125"

In Tad Martin: Tears of the Leather-bound Saints, Cassanova Frankenstein invades the straight world with his madcap ink line and macabre vision. When the author's coolly detached avatar gets fired from his shitty manual labor job, he spits bitter truths about insidious corporate greed and the soul-crushing rat race. From there, in a series of emotionally raw vignettes, he offers glimpses into his rough upbringing, from his dysfunctional home life to his childhood insecurities and racial anxieties—ultimately revealing the roots of his punk sensibility. A deeply vulnerable work from a true comics outsider.

ASTRONAUTS:
WOMEN ON THE FINAL
FRONTIER GN

(W) Jim Ottaviani
(A) Maris Wicks

America may have put the first man on the Moon, but it was the Soviet space program that made Valentina Tereshkova the first woman in space. Meanwhile, in the United States, NASA's first female astronauts were racing toward milestones of their own. These trailblazing women were admitted into Group 9, NASA's first mixed-gender class. They had the challenging task of convincing the powers that be that a woman's place is in space. But once they'd been admitted into the training program, they discovered that NASA had plenty to learn about how to make space travel possible for all humans. In Astronauts: Women on the Final Frontier, Jim Ottaviani and illustrator Maris Wicks capture the great humor and incredible drive of Mary Cleve, Valentina Tereshkova, and the first women in space. And whenever she's out, she's watchful of the murderous foxes who prey on her kind. But Bridgebelle is not ordinary — she's a rabbit with talents beyond her own understanding. Using cha, the mysterious fuel that powers her world, she can change everyday objects into thokchas-magical, trans-

But Bridgebelle is not ordinary — she's an artist. She uses her rare gift to create magical, cha-powered works of art known as thokchas. Many rabbits are suspicious of thokchas, and they blame them — and Bridgebelle — for the mysterious plague that's stricken their community. The foxes, however, see the power that thokchas hold. Marvel, Star Wars Keys Head to Auction

When it comes to collecting of any kind, the phrase “Holy Grail” gets thrown around quite a bit. It’s a pretty cliché term, and one that we try to avoid as much as possible, but it’s one that rings true. Virtually every segment of memorabilia and collectibles has some kind of item that every serious collector would want in their library, something that exists above all others.

In comic books, one might point to Action Comics #1, Detective Comics #27, or Amazing Fantasy #15 – the first appearances of Superman, Batman, and Spider-Man, respectively.

For baseball cards, the T206 Honus Wagner easily takes the top spot. In video games, you might see folks clamoring for a copy of Stadium Events or perhaps trying to get their hands on one of the rare Nintendo World Championship cartridges.

As I’m writing this article for you, two more Grail-type pieces are getting ready to cross the auction block.

One of these will head to Heritage Auctions – Marvel Comics #1 CGC 9.4. It happens to be the best-available copy of the book, and many are expecting the comic to be the next to hit the seven-figure dollar mark. Currently, Marvel Comics #1 is ranked sixth on our Top 100 Golden Age Comics list, and The Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide #49 lists the book’s top value at $720,000 for a 9.2 grade. We’ll see the book finish at auction at the end of November, and we’re looking forward to seeing what kind of result it brings.

The other is currently at Hake’s Auctions – a Boba Fett J-slot rocket firing prototype action figure. The Boba Fett figure was first displayed at the New York Toy Fair in 1979, but it never entered mass production due to concerns about the rocket-firing mechanism.

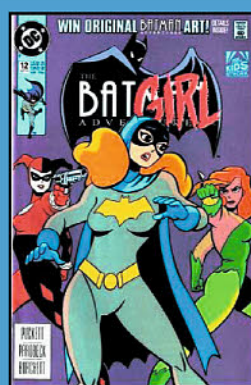

There’s two varieties of the figure, J-slot and L-slot, named as such due to the shape of the firing tab on Fett’s back. There’s only about 25 of the J-slot variety known to have survived, and Hake’s example is in especially good condition. The auction closes on November 6-7, and we can’t wait to see what kind of result Hake’s sees with this figure.

Of course, what a “Holy Grail” is to any collector is ultimately subjective. It all depends on what you want to focus your collection on. Maybe you’re a big X-Men fan, and your Grail would be The Incredible Hulk #181 (the first appearance of Wolverine). Maybe you prefer trading cards and you’d want to get your hands on a Black Lotus from Magic the Gathering, or the Pikachu Illustrator from the Pokémon Trading Card Game. Or maybe your Grail is just whatever happened to be your first comic book as a kid!

Whatever your Grail is, keep on collecting – and as we always say here, if you collect what you love, you can’t go wrong.

Known for: The comic book debut of Harley Quinn! In this book’s story, “Batgirl: Day One,” Barbara Gordon must fend off both Harley Quinn and Poison Ivy as they attempt to kidnap a wealthy heiress and hold her for ransom. Donning her Batgirl outfit for the first time (in this continuity), Barbara is able to rescue the heiress - only to then be knocked unconscious by Catwoman, who has arrived to take advantage of the situation.

Did You Know?: Harley Quinn had debuted first on Batman: The Animated Series, but this marked her first appearance in comic books. The character was limited to the DC Animated Universe for some time, and wouldn’t be introduced into the mainstream comic book continuity until 1999. However, due to the incredible mainstream popularity of Harley thanks to recent films and comics, this book has become more of a collector’s item over the years.

SHE-RA BOOK 1: THE LEGEND OF THE FIRE PRINCESS GN

(W) Gigi D. G. (A) Peterschmidt, Paulina Ganucheau

Don't miss the first epic She-Ra and the Princesses of Power graphic novel, based on stories by showrunner Noelle Stevenson! Even after everything that's happened, the world outside the Horde's walls is still a strange one to Adora. Each day she's learning more about her growing powers as She-Ra, including something new: the ability to heal corrupted runestones. Runestones are the magical source from which princesses like Frost, Mermista, and Perfuma draw their power, but Glimmer knows of another runestone — one with a dark past. Long ago a fire princess ruled the lands to the west, until her thirst for power corrupted her, and led to the ruin of her kingdom. Glimmer thinks the lost fire runestone could give the Rebellion an edge in the fight against the Horde, but claiming this ancient power won't be easy... especially not when the Horde has their eyes set on the same prize. Don't miss this original graphic novel based on stories by She-Ra showrunner and New York Times bestselling author Noelle Stevenson, with script by Gigi D.G. and art by Paulina Ganucheau! When Kim Hyun Sook started college in 1983 she was ready for her world to open up. After acing her exams and sort-of convincing her traditional mother that it was a good idea for a woman to go to college, she looked forward to soaking up the ideas of Western Literature far from the drudgery she was promised at her family's restaurant. But literature class would prove to be just the start of a massive turning point, still focused on reading but with life-or-death stakes she never could have imagined. This was during South Korea's Fifth Republic, a military regime that entrenched its power through censorship, torture, and the murder of protestors. In this charged political climate, with Molotov cocktails flying and fellow students disappearing for hours and returning with bruises, Hyun Sook sought refuge in the comfort of books. When the handsome young editor of the school newspaper invited her to his reading group, she expected to pop into the cafeteria to talk about Moby Dick, Hamlet, and The Scarlet Letter. Instead she found herself hiding in a basement as the youngest member of an underground banned book club. And as Hyun Sook soon discovered, in a totalitarian regime, the delights of discovering great works of illicit literature are quickly overshadowed by fear and violence as the walls close in. THE MAN WITHOUT TALENT GN

(W/A) YOSHIHARU Tsuge

A Japanese manga legend's autobiographical graphic novel about a struggling artist and the first full-length work by the great Yoshiharu Tsuge available in the English language! Yoshiharu Tsuge is one of comics' most celebrated and influential artists, but his work has been almost entirely unavailable to English-speaking audiences. The Man Without Talent, his first book ever to be translated into English, is an unforgiving self-portrait of frustration. Swearing off cartooning as a profession, Tsuge takes on a series of unconventional jobs—used camera salesman, ferryman, and stone collector—hoping to find success among the hucksters, speculators, and deadbeats he does business with. Instead, he fails again and again, unable to provide for his family, earning only their contempt and his own. The result is a dryly funny look at the pitfalls of the creative life, and an off-kilter portrait of modern Japan. Accompanied by an essay from translator Ryan Holmberg that discusses Tsuge's importance in comics and Japanese literature, The Man Without Talent is one of the great works of comics literature. (W) Dale Carothers, Daniel DeVargas

The Battle of Britain is a full-color graphic novel that follows the Royal Air Force as they defend the United Kingdom against the infamous German Luftwaffe. Drawing from historical documents and firsthand accounts, the book details the events that led up to the four-month campaign, the fight to end the Nazi bomb attacks, and the long-term impact on air force strategy. By September of 1940, hundreds of British fighter planes were destroyed or damaged and the German Blitz was underway. Learn how the Royal Air Force came back from near-defeat, shot down the Nazi aircraft, and prevented Hitler from gaining the air superiority he needed for his planned invasion. Guadalcanal is a graphic novel in vivid color detailing the fierce struggle for control of the Solomon Islands, a pivotal point in the Allied campaign against Japan during World War II. Based on historical records and interviews from the men who fought in the Pacific theater, the book describes the landing operations, naval battles, and opposing military goals that surrounded one of the hardest-won campaigns in the Second World War. PUSSYCAT HC

(W/A/CA) Peyo

From comics master Peyo (The Smurfs) comes Pussycat, a lovable, mischievous tuxedo cat who spends his time chasing after milk and snacks and framing other members of his family for his shenanigans. This cat isn't exactly the noble hunting type; he'd rather play a game of kickball with the resident mouse than chase after him. Warning, our hero Poussy is a real (somewhat mischievous) cat. He does not speak (he just meows) and his main passions in life are eating, hunting mice, avoiding dogs and meowing at night. And you'll be surprised at the lengths he goes to in order to indulge his passions! Originally published in Spirou magazine in France, this is a delightful collection of comics that can be enjoyed by all-ages. (STK659903)

From Sean Connery to Daniel Craig, James Bond is the highest-grossing movie franchise of all time. Out-grossing Star Wars, Harry Potter, and the Marvel Cinematic Universe, the world's most iconic and international secret agent has a shelf life of almost six decades, from Dr. No to Spectre. As nuclear threats are replaced by a series of subtler threats in a globalized and digital world, Bond is with us still. In The Science of James Bond, we recognize the Bond franchise as a unique genre: spy-fi. A genre of film and fiction that fuses spy fiction with science fiction. We look at Bond's obsessions with supervillains, the future, and world domination or destruction. And we take a peek under the hood of trends in science and tech, often in the form of gadgets and spy devices. This is the only James Bond companion that looks at the film and fiction in such a "spy-fi" way, taking in weapon wizards, the chemistry of death, threads of nuclear paranoia, and Bond bad-dies' obsession with the master race! (W) Duane Swierczynski (A) Jason Felix (CA) Tim Bradstreet

If she's going to survive, Marnie is going to have learn how to harness her bizarre "power" and escape, even if that means heads will have to roll... Join Duane Swierczynski (Deadpool, Birds of Prey) and Jason Felix (JC's Tales for a HalloweenNight, Conan) for what is seriously the most demented installment of Redhead yet! JOHN CARPENTER'S TALES OF SCIENCE FICTION: SURVIVING NUCLEAR ATTACK TP

(W) Joe Harris (A/CA) Cat Staggs

As the Cold War widened in the 1950s, military hero, George Kutter and his family trained to be legacy survivors in the event of an atomic exchange with the Soviet Union. Prepared to wait out the aftermath of nuclear war, they were subjected to myriad simulations, scenarios and stresses in hopes of helping salvage something of their family, their country and humanity from the ashes of a conflict with the Russians that never happened. But when a group of hunting buddies stumble upon a seemingly abandoned fallout shelter in the present-day Pennsylvania wilderness, a crash course in Cold War paranoia, propaganda and control awaits. What was the nature of the secret Archonite initiative? What lengths did the United States go to in order to prepare for all-out war and its aftermath? What did the Kutter Family endure in perpetration for their duty? And if World War III never broke out... why are they still down there? Written by Joe Harris (Rockstars, The X-Files) with art and covers by Cat Staggs (Crosswinds, Death of Superman), this collection includes all five issues, plus covers, in one beautiful volume! Beginning with his WPA etchings during the 1930s, Mac Raboy struggled to survive the Great Depression and eventually found his way into the comic book sweatshops of America. In that world of four-color panels, he perfected his art style on such creations as Dr. Voodoo, Zoro, The Mystery Man, Bulletman, Spy Smasher, Green Lama and his crowning achievement, Captain Marvel Jr. Raboy went on to illustrate the Flash Gordon Sunday newspaper strip, and left behind a legacy of meticulous perfection. Through extensive research and interviews with son David Raboy, and assistants who worked with the artist during the Golden Age of Comics, author Roger Hill brings Mac Raboy, the man and the artist, into focus for historians to savor and enjoy. O/A KIRBY & LEE: STUF' SAID! SC (NEW PRINTING)

New updated edition! For its 75th issue, The Jack Kirby Collector magazine presents this first-of-its-kind examination of the creators of the Marvel Universe, in an oversized book! Completed just days before Stan Lee's recent passing, Kirby & Lee: Stuf' Said! looks back at the duo's own words - in chronological order, from fanzine, radio, and television interviews - to paint the most comprehensive and enlightening picture of their relationship ever done... why it succeeded, where it deteriorated, and when it eventually failed. Also, here are recollections from Steve Ditko, Wallace Wood, John Romita, Sr., and more Marvel Bullpen stalwarts who worked with both Kirby and Lee. Rounding out this book is a study of the duo's careers after they parted ways as collaborators, including Kirby's difficulties at Marvel Comics in the 1970s, his last hurrah with Lee on the Silver Surfer Graphic Novel, and his exhausting battle to get back his original art - and creator credit - from Marvel. Stuf' Said! gives both men their say, compares their recollections, and tackles the question, "Who really created the Marvel Comics Universe?" Compiled, researched, and edited by publisher John Morrow. (STL122062)

O/A COMIC BOOK IMPLOSION SC

In 1978, DC Comics implemented a bold initiative to combat plummeting sales: Give readers more story pages with a higher cover price, to better compete on newsstands. This "DC Explosion" brought with it many creative new titles, but just weeks after its launch, they pulled the plug, cancelling numerous titles and leaving stacks of completed comic book stories unpublished. It quickly became known as "The DC Implosion", and TwoMorrows Publishing delves into one of the most notorious events in comics with an exhaustive oral history from the creators involved (Jenette Kahn, Paul Levitz, Len Wein, Mike Gold, and others), plus detailed analysis of how it changed the landscape of comics forever! (W) Dewey Cassell (A) Mike Grell From a seminal turn on Superboy and the Legion of Super-Heroes and creating the lost world of the Warlord, to his work on Green Arrow, Mike Grell made an indelible mark at DC Comics in the 1970s and '80s. But his greatest contribution to the comics industry was in pioneering creator-owned properties like Jon Sable, Starslayer, and Shaman's Tears. This career-spanning tribute to the master storyteller is told in Grell's own words, full of candor, optimism, and humor. Full of illustrations from every facet of his long career, with a Foreword by Chad Hardin, it is a fitting tribute to the artist, writer, and storyteller. (STL088520)

(W/A) M.S. Harkness

Tinderella is an autobiographical comic about online dating, living poor and being a dumb 20-something. Intense work out sessions, a series of unsatisfying Tinder dates, and a bout of pink-eye; over confident and crude, Harkness's work is hilarious and emotionally agonizing. Tinderella is M.S. Harkness' debut graphic novel. (STL143569) (C: 0-1-0)

ABOUT MANGA!

MANGA, pronounced "MAHN-gah," is the Japanese word for all comics. More generally, manga refers to comics made in Japan and comics made by Japanese creators.

Japan has a long history of exploring LGBT+ themes in several different manga genres aimed at (and created by) people from all over the gender and sexuality spectrums.

"Yuri" manga is sometimes known as "Girls' Love". These are stories about romantic relationships between women. Some series are written primarily by and for women, others are mostly by and for men, and the rest of the titles fall somewhere in-between.

"BL" ("Boys' Love") manga can also be known as yaoi (pronounced "Yah-oy"), this is arguably the most established LGBT+ genre in the West, since many titles have come out in North America since the mid-2000s. Although these titles focus on the romantic relationships between men, they're primarily written by and aimed at women.

Autobiographies are very different from yuri and BL — which are explicitly fiction and tend to follow certain tropes — Seven Seas also publishes memoirs by LGBT+ creators in Japan, which are often drawn as diary comics.

NEW TITLE

SYNOPSIS

Long ago, the gods granted a few special animals great powers... but not all those animals used their magical abilities for good! Senzou the Fox Spirit in particular grew too brash and arrogant, abusing his strength until the gods imprisoned him for his bad behavior.

Three hundred years later, he's finally been released, but only on one condition— he can't have any of his abilities back until he successfully helps a tanuki cub named Manpachi become an assistant to the gods. Unfortunately for Senzou, there's no cheating when it comes to completing his task! The magic beads around his neck make sure he can't wander too far from his charge or shirk his duties, and so... Senzou the once-great Fox Spirit must now figure out how to be an actually-great babysitter to a mischievous little tanuki or risk being stuck without his powers forever!

TOY TALK: ERIQUE WATSON

This month, we turn our attentions away from industry insiders — the guys who create the Toys, Statues and items we love to collect — and focus on one of our own: Diamond brand manager for our TOYS section, Erique Watson. Erique is an avid collector and toy enthusiast, and is the main liaison between Diamond and Funko (among others), which puts him at the frontlines for bringing exclusive POP!s to the pages of PREVIEWS throughout the year...

PREVIEWS: Tell us about your role at Diamond as a Brand Manager for the Merchandise team?

Erique Watson: I look for new vendors offering pop culture toy product, as well as develop product exclusives for Diamond, based on trends in entertainment licensing.

P: You are the brand manager for Funko and you handle the many Exclusive POP! Vinyl Figures we see in PREVIEWS each month. How do you work with Funko to determine those exclusives?

EW: I come up with a list of characters and concepts that we want to develop into exclusives, and we work to whittle that list down to the best possible product offerings for our retailers and their consumers. This is often times based on upcoming TV/film releases, video games, events in comic books or feedback from other sources.

P: This past year you have also worked with Funko to offer limited edition variant cover comics to go along with the PREVIEWS Exclusive Pop! Figures. Tell us more about that program?

EW: Sure. Going forward, select upcoming Marvel POP! exclusives will offer incentive, exclusive comic book covers, based on that POP! character. We're hoping to extend this program to other publishers in upcoming projects. Be sure to check in with your local Diamond retailer for details on the next exclusive POP! comic offering from PREVIEWS!

P: Can you tease any PREVIEWS Exclusive POP! Figures that will be coming in 2020? Anything for Free Comic Book Day?

EW: In 2020, we're going to have some really cool POP! exclusives, based on some A-list characters and fan-favorites that have not yet been seen in the POP! format. And something really, really cool is coming for Free Comic Book Day! Stay tuned!
